

MYSTERY N HARBOR DEATH

A man believed to be Simon Porter, a master mariner, died from a fractured skull as the result of being thrown today from the wharf of the harbor of the south side of Lewis wharf two hours previous, by members of the crew of the tugboat Italia.

Whether the man jumped, fell or was pushed from the wharf is not known. He never regained consciousness and neither the police nor the hospital authorities were able to learn how he received the fractured skull. Several theories are advanced. It may have been caused on the wharf and hit over the head with some blue warren or he may have accidentally fallen from the wharf, striking his head against the pilings as he went down into the water.

Porter was 40 years of age. He was a native of New York and had been in the harbor of the south side of Lewis wharf for some time. He was a member of the crew of the tugboat Italia. A discharge certificate from the Marine Hospital at Chelsea was found in the man's pockets bearing the name "Simon Porter." It was the only clue to his identification.

ULL TO WAR ON AUTO SPEEDERS

The selection of Hull has instructed a set of Police Reynolds to take vigorous action against auto speeders who violate the town's speed laws. Hull has said he would have been ready to see many complaints have been received, but that the selection plan to bring out a change.

Chief Reynolds has been empowered to take action to aid in the campaign.

GIRL LEADS BAND AGAINST DIAZ

MEXICO CITY, April 7.—At the head of a rebel band several hundred strong is a young woman, the daughter of General Camilo Diaz of Guerrero, once a rebel leader, according to an article in the Herald.

"La Neta" organized her force of insurgents in Guerrero, her native state, and the first of this week she and her followers rode before the secondary line of the state of Mexico.

BOMB CAUSES HOTEL PANIC

NEW YORK, April 7.—With a thundering detonation which spread panic over the entire city, a bomb exploded early today in the basement entrance of the building at No. 121 West 125th street. The Knickerbocker Hotel, adjacent and a score of lesser-known hotels were in the zone of terror.

Handfuls of people rushed into the hotel office, fearing that the building was about to be struck by the city.

MONTCALM SCION UNDER ARREST

Paul J. Montcalm, who lives in the dormitory of the Y. M. C. A. in Chelsea, is under arrest on a charge of being a fugitive from justice. Montcalm is wanted in New York, N. Y., charged with grand larceny charged on January 4. Montcalm arrived today to take Montcalm back into the custody of the police. He is the great grandson of General Montcalm, who was killed at Quebec by British forces.

Women's Shoes

THE building of Women's Shoes is a more refined art than the building of Men's shoes.

Strength and durability are just as requisite but a more delicate alignment is essential. Care and special designs—coupled with an intimate knowledge of the texture and resiliency quality of tanned leathers—make our new and exclusive line of shoes for women particularly attractive.

The price range is $1,400, $1,450, $5.00, $85.00, $86.00 and above.

IN BROKER SUIT HOMES EXHIBIT

The highest single exhibit ever shown in an exposition, with the possible exception of a world's fair—"The Ideal Home"—has been the attraction for thousands of visitors at the Greater Boston Real Estate and Ideal Homes Exposition held at the Massachusetts State House under the auspices of the Boston Real Estate Exchange.

At the Cambridge exhibit, showing large illustrated maps and photographs available at the University of Massachusetts, the University of Massachusetts has interested a number of persons for the purchase of a large tract of land in Cambridge for his new home. The Cambridge exhibit was open to the public every Saturday for the purchase of a large tract of land in Cambridge for his new home. The Cambridge exhibit was open to the public every Saturday for the purchase of a large tract of land in Cambridge for his new home.

The school children of Hyde Park were given a special tour of the exhibit, and the narrow same courtesy will be extended to the school children of Cambridge. Special tours will also be given to women visitors at the exposition to-day.

BALTIMORE, April 7.—Mayor Mahon has signed the segregation ordinance which passed councils by a strict Democratic vote. The new ordinance is more stringent than the old one, which was declared defective by the courts.

WE WILL GUARANTEE EASTER DELIVERIES--

In order to make very patron feel perfectly at ease in ordering a suit here, we will absolutely guarantee a delivery of a perfect suit in time for Easter. This is to prevent as many as possible of our patrons from going to the ready-made stores for a makeshift when they really want a custom-made suit (or top coat). We call attention to our great design of "The Front-That-won't-break-down." This feature of coat-making has been the crown achievement of Gale & Kent so far ahead of all the other tailors in the city that it is a shame to talk about it. This feature has been registered at the State House as our property. It belongs to no other tailor. It is intended for our patrons—the crowning achievement of successful coat making—an absolute and unqualified assurance that the coats of our customers will stay as they ought to stay. Our prices are only $15 to $25—made so by an enormous business—well organized—carefully managed—and with 19 years of record behind it. You can order your Easter suit here any time up to next Monday evening—but today or tomorrow preferred—and we will have a satisfactory try-on and make the final delivery before a week from Saturday. Come and order your suit from the finest line of goods-in-the-piece in any tailor shop in Boston.
